Oksana Baiul

Oksana Baiul was born November 16, 1977 in the Ukraine. By the age of thirteen, Oksana was an orphan, and all she had were her ice skates. Oksana was a chubby child, and her parents wanted her to go for ballet lessons, but she was too young to be enrolled. So instead they sent her to try figure skating. She was a natural and took to the sport easily. At five years old she already had her own coach, and at seven won a competition. When her parents died Oksana went to live with her coach. But, there were food shortages in the Ukraine, and he had to leave. Oksana was left in the care of another coach, who bought her all new equipment. She won many competitions with this coach. During a practice for a major competition she suffered a bad injury. She skated anyway and won! Oksana then became a gold medal winner in the Winter Olympics of 1994.

MOLD

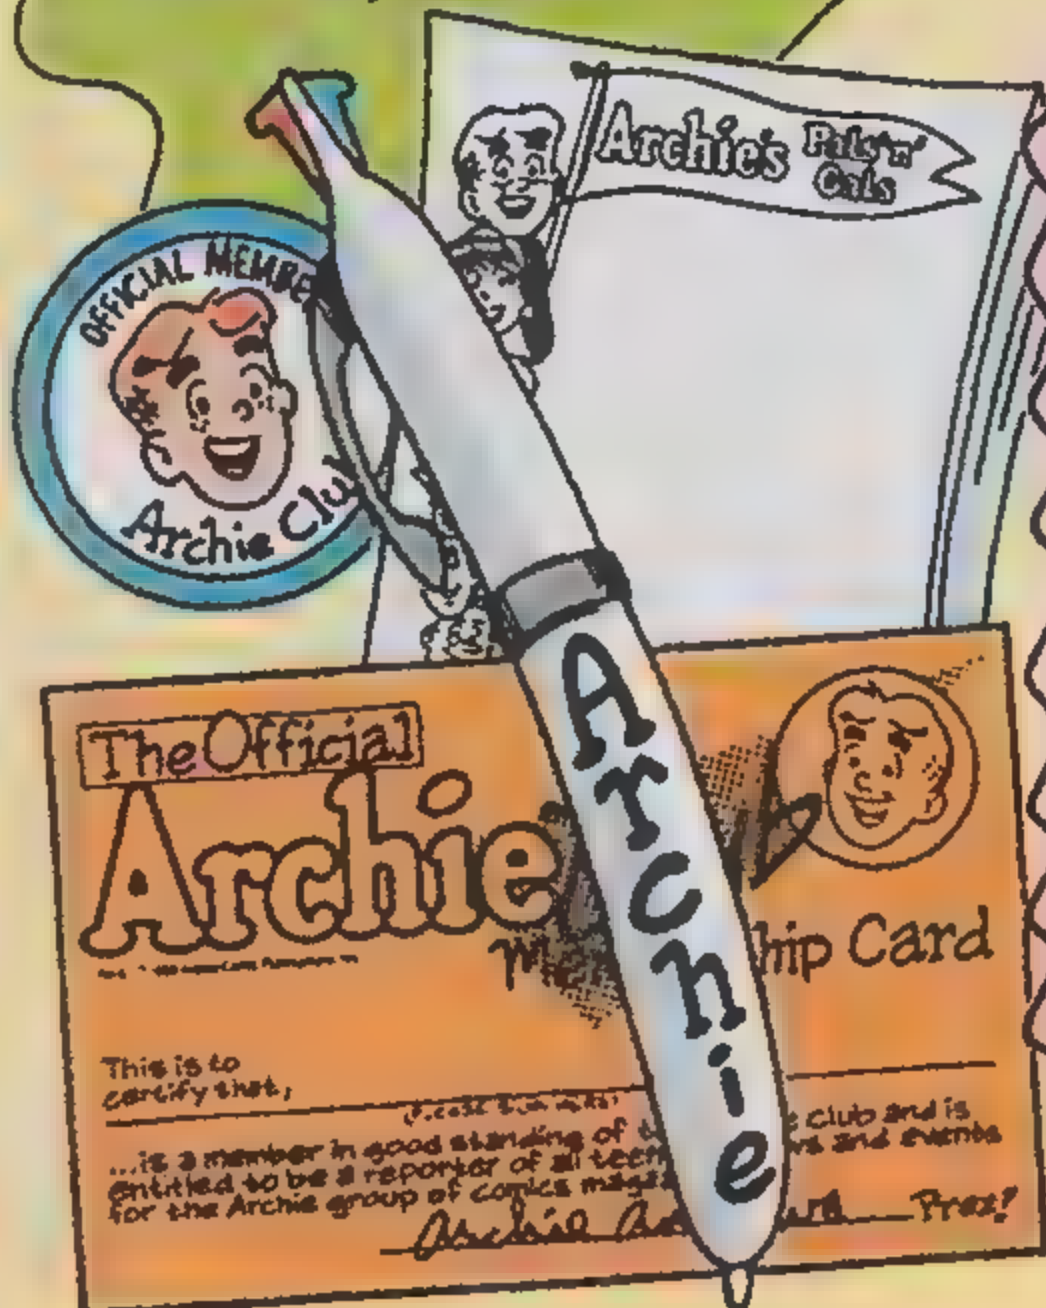

Mold is a saprophytic fungus, the simplest form of plant. It's a furry growth often green or blue in color, and will grow on dead plants or animals (food). It thrives in a dark, moist place (an old cheese and tomato sandwich in the fridge). Mold can cause disease in humans and animals. But, it's also used in medicine. Mold's most important job is to decompose dead plants and animals into simple matter (dirt).

EDITOR'S NOTEBOOK

Dear Archie Readers,

I hope you've all been enjoying the SABRINA THE TEENAGE WITCH show on ABC-TV. As of this writing, Sabrina has been rated the top show on Friday night. The SABRINA comic has also received an overwhelming response. In some comic shops the Sabrina books disappeared off the racks the very first day...and it wasn't magic. They sold out. So, all you Sabrina fans, there's more to come. We're working feverishly to have that loveable teenage witch in her own ongoing series starting in January or February, 1997. I would also like to start a Sabrina letters page. I'm sure Sabrina will have just the right magical advice. However, I doubt if she'll suggest solving problems by turning people into frogs. If you're interested, write your letters to: Archie Comic Publications, Inc., DEAR SABRINA, P.O. Box 419, Mamaroneck, NY 10543-0419.

Now let's check out some of next month's releases. First, there's WORLD OF ARCHIE #22 MARCH. In the story "So How Was Your Vacation?" Archie accidentally stows away in Mr. Lodge's pet project "The Berg Buster." This specially- designed high tech watercraft was built to pulverize dangerous icebergs in the North Sea shipping lanes. However, things get a little out of hand, which is not unusual for Archie. In this adventure he not only encounters the abominable snowman but a giant octopus as well. It's an exciting adventure you won't want to miss. Next there's JUGHEAD #90 MARCH. This is Part 2 of the three- part saga featuring TRULA TWYST and her J.U.S.T.

cause. You can't possibly afford to miss seeing Jughead as he faces his greatest threat ... WOMEN! ... or maybe even worse ... ROMANCE! In ARCHIE #457 MARCH, you'll have an opportunity to have some fun when you read "Interactive Comics!" Archie and his friends will ask you to choose the fate of your favorite characters, with hilarious results.

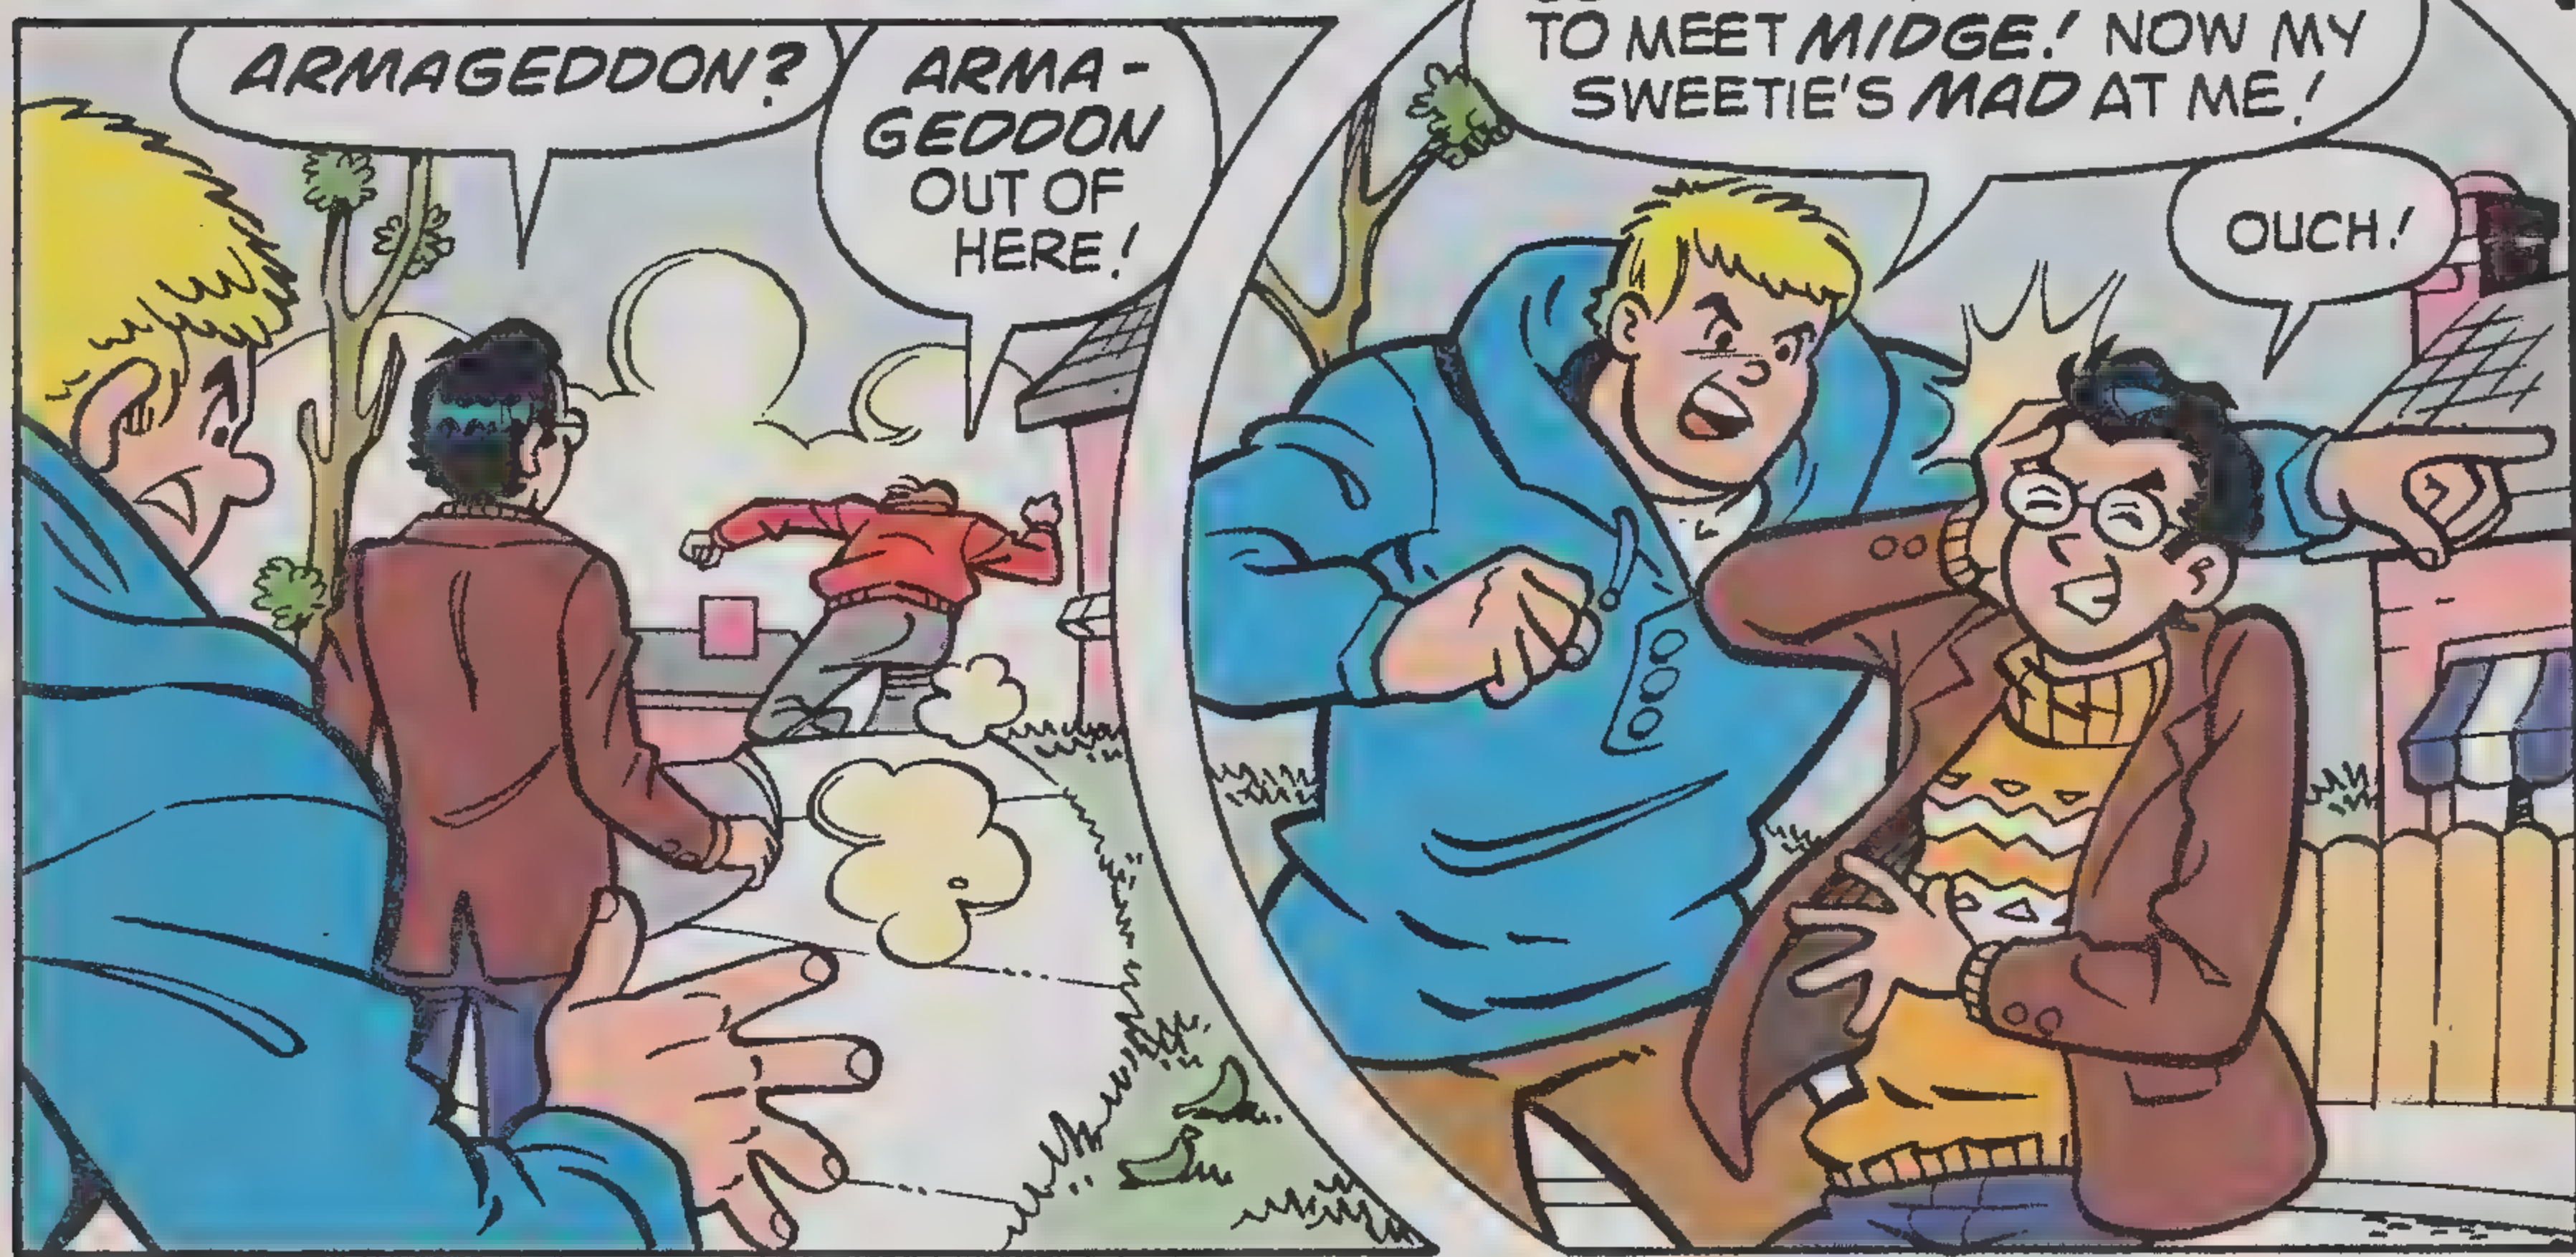

That's it for now. Till next month.
